Sun Publications

Woodridge musician Sharon West talks about life as a series of journeys. Her career in the telecommunications industry was a journey. Her layoff in 2002, which enabled her to pursue music full time, marked the end of that journey and the start of another. Faced with a discouraging medical diagnosis, West, 45, chose to view it as something that might alter the pace of her journey but not its course.

It's no surprise, then, that when...

Dusty Dreams Success Interview w/ Potential in Motion

Sharon West is the owner of Dusty Dreams Music, and a professional composer. Sharon hired me in October of 2006 to assist her with the marketing and sales of her music. Sharon currently has three CDs, as well as a new release, World Journey, which just came out this month. I recently sat down with Sharon to talk to her about her new CD, as well as her experiences with starting and running her own business.
